Nathan Page and Megan Bless are recent music graduates of Ave Maria University in Ave Maria, Florida. Both musicians studied voice as their primary instruments during their time at the university. For several years, Nathan has been discerning a call to the priesthood and believes he is called to serve God as a religious priest. He has recently been accepted to the Norbertine canons of St. Michael's Abbey in Silverado, CA, but he must first resolve all of his student loans before he can enter at the end of this August. During his undergraduate career, Nathan was awarded the Men's Discernment Award, given to the graduating senior who best typifies the ideals of the Men's Discernment program, a program of prayer and study for men discerning the priesthood. Nathan has also been very active within the music department. He has conducted a number of choirs for various weddings and other Catholic Masses, most notably leading the 2010 Triduum services at the Oratory of Ave Maria, Florida. Thank you for your generous donations in helping Nathan pursue the life to which he believes God is calling him.
