Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I have recently become acquainted with the good work of the Laboure Society, which is an ecclesiastical organization which assists those who are aspiring to the religious life to pay off their college loan debt. In order to enter religious life, a candidate must be debt-free, and so college loans can be a real obstacle for many who desire to enter religious life. The Laboure Society assists these individuals to find the resources to overcome this obstacle.

By Means of this letter, therefore, I wish to indicate my endorsement of the Laboure Society's efforts to support religious vocations among the faithful in the Diocese of Columbus

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Frederick F. Campbell, D.D., Ph.D.
Bishop of Columbus
